

CAREER DEVELOPMENT WEEK

1. SYLLABUS INFORMATION

1.1. Course title

Career Development Week

1.2. University

Université de Bordeaux

1.3. Semester

2nd year, 1st semester

2. COURSE DETAILS

2.1. Course nature

Compulsory

2.2. ECTS Credit allotment

2

2.3. Recommendations

None

2.4. Faculty data

None

3. COMPETENCES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

3.1. Course objectives

The Career Development Week is a dedicated week to enhance practical skills and personal development for job prospection and future career. It consists in presentations from companies on Research, R&D and engineering careers, and practical courses (workshops) on how to make a CV (classical and digital), how to build a professional network and how to apply for a job.

3.2. Course contents

1. Conferences

- Presentations of Research / R&D / Engineering careers
- Focus on the PhD thesis (in a company or in a research lab)
- Use cases – Alumni careers

2. Workshops

- Standard and digital CV
- Professional social networks
- How to prepare for a job interview

3.3. Course bibliography

None

4. TEACHING-AND-LEARNING METHODOLOGIES AND STUDENT WORKLOAD

4.2. List of training activities

Activity	Hours
Lectures	10
Computer lab	10

5. EVALUATION PROCEDURES AND WEIGHT OF COMPONENTS IN THE FINAL GRADE

Evaluatory activity	%
Job interview	50
Cvs, material produced during the workshops	50